

Medical Student Essay Competition

Chance to present and publish

National Competition boost your CV!

The British Society of Clinical and Academic Hypnosis invites students of all years at UK medical schools to submit an essay on the subject of Clinical Hypnosis, the title of which is to be:

“Discuss the role that Clinical Hypnosis has to play as an adjuvant to modern medicine in the 21st Century”

Submissions of no fewer than 2500 and no greater than 5000 words, with suitable references in the Harvard format will be accepted and judged for the following prizes:

£100 cash prize!

Deadline: Midnight on the 28th February 2012

1st Prize: £100 & Free place on the Society's Foundation Course*

2nd Prize: Free place on the Society's Foundation Course*

3rd Prize: Free place on module 1 of the Foundation Course*

which can count towards a University Accredited Diploma*

Winner and runners-up will be given a free place to the Society's Annual Scientific Conference to be presented with their award and there may be the potential for suitable winning submissions to be published in a peer reviewed scientific journal.

For information or to submit entries (as word.doc format), email:

bscah@btinternet.com

BSCAH is a learned society dedicated to the promotion of the academic study and professional practice of Clinical Hypnosis. For more information:

telephone: 0844 844 3116 or email: bscah@btinternet.com

© British Society of Clinical and Academic Hypnosis
www.bscah.com