

Stephan Hammel

Stefan Hammel, born in 1967, was engaged for eight years as a community pastor. Today, he works as a child and family therapist, hypnotherapist, and as chaplain in a general hospital and a psychiatric hospital. He leads seminars on therapeutic storytelling, utilisation (using the seemingly useless), hypnotherapy and hypno-systemic consultation.

Stefan was trained at the renowned systemic institutes for Systemic Therapy in Heidelberg (International Society of Systemic Therapy "IGST" and Helm-Stierlin-Institut) and in the German Milton Erickson Society. He is an associated Member of the Milton Erickson Society in Germany. Stefan Hammel has been doing workshops for the Milton Erickson Society as well as for the Systemic Institute IGST in Heidelberg, for the Vienna psychotherapy training institute VPA and many other Organisations in Austria, Switzerland, USA and Germany.
